lass description	Afraid of Knits?? Don't be!! Come learn all about sewing and serging with knits! You will learn the different types of knits--hint: just because it stretches, doesn't mean it's a knit! Do you how to determine the amount of stretch in a knit? How about the "recovery" factor? Avoid the saggy rear end and knees in knit pants, or tops that lose their shape. Do you know all of the different fibers knits can be made from? And which fibers are best for which garments? How about how to alter a pattern to make it in a knit? Do you need facings? What is fold-over elastic? Things to consider when fitting a knit garment? How to hem a knit garment? We will cover all that and more! Bring your serger, OR sewing machine if you don't have a serger. NOTE* There is no project for this class, you will just practice on small samples of various knits.
Supply list	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Serger set for 4 thread overlock with any color thread OR sewing machine</li> <li>• Optional: Cover Stitch attachment/machine</li> <li>• Ballpoint needles, threads snips, tools for marking and cutting.</li> </ul> Kit will contain a large selection of knit samples. If you have some knit fabric you want advice on—bring it!
